Winwood College Prefects'

Glencity Team Building

Winwood College Prefects Team Building Outing at Glencity Camp

The prefects of Winwood College arrived at Glencity Camp, eager to bond and strengthen teamwork. After fun icebreakers led by Winwood College, they divided into teams for an obstacle course. Initially competitive, they soon learned the value of collaboration, cheering each other on as they faced challenges.

At lunch, they shared stories about their leadership journeys, fostering trust and understanding. As night fell, they gathered around a campfire, roasting marshmallows and reflecting on their experiences.

Mark, the head prefect, summed it up: "We're not just leaders; we're a family." The outing ended under a starry sky, leaving them with strengthened friendships and a renewed commitment to lead with unity.
